We are interested in special efforts that parents put forth when they have children with special problems or needs.

Did you make exceptional efforts to care for any of your children before they turned 15 due to health or developmental issues? That is, did you or your spouse or partner reduce the number of hours you worked for at least a month, stop working all together, increase the hours you worked to pay for special care or help, or move to be near a special school, hospital, or specialist?
